The Dorothy & Sherrill C. Corwin Awards

APPLICATION

Deadline: Thursday, May 6th 2016, 4:00 pm
2433 SSMS, UCSB

Eligibility: Students registered at UCSB at least for one quarter during the 2015-16 academic year, to be eligible in a category.

Categories:
- Feature Screenplay (90-120 pages)
- Short Screenplay (6-60 pages) (No TV scripts accepted)
- Short Film/Video (under 30 minutes)

Award amounts:
- Best Feature Screenplay
  $700 for First Place, $300 for Honorable Mention
- Best Short Film
  $700 for First Place, $300 for Honorable Mention
- Best Short Screenplay
  $300 for First Place, $200 for Honorable Mention

Honorable Mentions are often awarded in each category.

Film/Video Submissions:
To be eligible for consideration for Best Short Film the project’s producer must be a UCSB student during at least one quarter during the 2015-16 academic year. All formats will be accepted, DVD, flash drive, Blu-Ray or Vimeo links, however please be aware if a source must be compatible with standard players. If a source cannot be viewed, the entry will be disqualified. Please label the entry with your project title and name. This screener copy will not be returned to applicant.

Screenplay Submissions:
All entries must be typed. Each submission should have a two cover pages
1. With the title and contact information
2. With just the title. Your name should not appear on the inner pages of the script.
For the short screenplay category TV Pilots, Spec Scripts, and Webisode will not be considered in this competition. They should be submitted to the Television Writing Award (Due May 13th). Do not submit the same script to both competitions as they may disqualify themselves.

Announcement of Winners:
Winners will be contacted through the email or phone contacts provided on application. Prizes will be awarded at the Film and Media Graduation Reception.

Please fill out a separate application for each film or script you submit.

Any questions concerning the contest or submissions can be directed to:
Joe Palladino (805) 893-8675 jpalladino@filmandmedia.ucsb.edu
2015-16 Dorothy and Sherrill C. Corwin Award Application

Contact Information:

Name: ____________________________________  Perm: ______________________________
Mailing Address: _________________________________________________________________
Phone Number: ___________________________________________________________________
Email: __________________________________________________________________________

Category: (please check; see guidelines for descriptions)
____ Feature Screenplay  ____ Short Screenplay  ____ Short Film/Video

Project Title: ____________________________________________________________________

Film/Video Information

Producer: _________________________  Director:____________________________
Writer: ____________________________  Editor: _____________________________
Cinematographer: _____________________________________________________________
Running Time: _________________________________________________________________
Genre: (i.e. drama, comedy, etc.):_________________________________________________
Synopsis of Film/ Script: (one to two sentences)_____________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

APPLICANT NOTE:
Only one check can be written.
Give the name of the student's whose name should be on it: ___________________________
Is this applicant a UCSB employee? ____ Yes ____ No
Has the applicant ever won a Corwin award before? If so, what year, which award (first place or honorable mention), and title of the project: __________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

Signature: ___________________________________________

Thanks for submitting!